Date: Saturday, Apr 20, 2024

Time: 09:30 AM

Meeting Point: : The cashier's office of the new Acropolis Museum, located at the lobby on your right-hand side

We begin with the one of the most interesting museums of Athens, which is focused on the Parthenons marble decoration. In total 4000 exhibits help us understand this famous monument!

Then on foot we continue our walk through a historical neighborhood, the one of Plaka. As it is the oldest residential area in town, in order to get a sense of orientation, I show you a couple of easy ways to enjoy this stroll and take in Athens's most picturesque part.

We do pass by the Roman Agora, as well as the flea market of the city. A short photo stop on all three spots is included and of course I'll be there to give you the basic information.

ITINERARY

Acropolis museum-Plaka area-Flea market, all within the historical centre of the city, easily covered on foot! This tour from the beginning to the end is done in a pedestrian area, so not (that many) cars and scooters around us.

It's the so-called neighborhood of the gods that we walk through after visiting the most popular museum in Athens!
